

Platform

Turn Cloud Communication Platforms into Fully Integrated Solutions.

At the heart of every business is a communication platform – Microsoft Teams, Zoom, Cisco Webex or beyond. Each connects people, but on their own they're just the start. That's where Konekt comes in.

We help partners transform these platforms into seamless, revenue-generating solutions. Whether customers want to unify video, voice, and contact centre services or deliver AI-enhanced collaboration, Konekt brings the expertise, ecosystem and services to make it happen.

Why Partners Choose Konekt

01 Multi-Platform Expertise

We specialise in Microsoft Teams, Zoom, and Cisco Webex – three global leaders in cloud comms. Our deep accreditation across each means you get instant access to expert support and proven implementation success.

02 End-to-End Services

Every project starts and scales through our structured service framework:

-  Discovery:
Assess your customers' overall readiness.
-  Implementation:
Deliver seamless solutions that work effortlessly.
-  Maintenance:
Keep everything performing at its best.
-  Adoption:
Make new solutions feel like second nature.
-  Konektor:
Consolidate complex environments into one streamlined setup.

03 Handpicked Vendor Ecosystem

Strengthen your offering, improve customer satisfaction and enhance your value with complementary vendors across analytics, compliance, security, recording and more.

04 Technical Excellence

With thousands of hours of specialist engineering delivered each year, we handle everything from complex voice migrations to AI enablement. Our team maintains all the Microsoft voice accreditations and remains Zoom's most accredited distribution partner, so you can access top-tier expertise without the long-term cost.

Konektor: One Platform, Zero Complexity

Konektor is a fully managed cloud telephony solution that unifies global number availability, built-in support, and an easy-to-sell model. It streamlines multi-platform environments into a single solution: one supplier, one point of accountability, one simple way to manage.

The Result

Simplified cloud communication.
Smarter collaboration.
More profitable growth –
without the complexity.
